Poundstretcher plan to open in Co-op site

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

DISCOUNT store company Poundstretcher say they plan to open a shop in Haverhill's old Co-Op site in Jubilee Walk in October.

The building has been empty since December 2011.

Its regeneration is a key part of ONE Haverhill's town centre masterplan, which will go before St Edmundsbury Borough Council in September.

Company secretary at Poundstretcher Martin Collinson said: "We are planning on opening a store in the town. It's an old Co-Op site."

"It's just waiting to complete the legals. We would indicate that it's going to be open some time in early October."

The company have been advertising online for a store manager, deputy manager, and supervisor in Haverhill.

The adverts have now come down, and Mr Collinson says the company is going through the applications to appoint a management team. He said once these three roles were filled, they would begin to appoint a team of service assistants.

He said these would probably be part-time roles, but stressed that Poundstretcher does not use zero-hours contracts.

The company's property director

Tim Shattock said they had agreed terms on a unit but the plans were not certain until the contract had been signed.

A spokesperson for the Co-Operative confirmed that the property was under offer from a high street retailer.

The building is owned by St Edmundsbury Borough Council, but was leased to the Co-Operative Group.

A spokesperson for St Edmundsbury Borough Council said: "We know that there are retailers looking to move into Haverhill, but we can't comment on individual cases because we wouldn't necessarily know who wants to go where."

"Although the Jubilee Walk property is empty, the Co-op still has responsibility for the lease of the premises and the council has a strong interest in what happens there because of any potential impact as a result of the town centre masterplan development."

A spokeswoman for ONE Haverhill said: "The draft Haverhill Town Centre Masterplan will go before St Edmundsbury Borough Council in September."

"Any activity related to the Co-op site is a good thing for Haverhill."

Chair of Haverhill Chamber of Commerce, Paul Donno, said: "The Chamber of Commerce welcomes the fact that the building is being used and there are employment opportunities."

"We are slightly disappointed by the type of shop that's in there as we would have liked a bigger household name, but we are encouraged by the fact that it's a large shop."

CRIME

Vandalism at the skate park

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

SKATERS say that vandals are starting fires and breaking bottles at a skate park to disrupt and discredit its users.

One user of the Howe Road skate park, Dillon Lucas said: "Every weekend I come down here on a Saturday morning there will be smashed glass."

He and other users of the park said they frequently spend hours cleaning up the broken glass at the weekends, and BMX riders still suffer punctures.

They said that the glass problem began when a bottle bank was installed in Howe Road on March 19 this year.

Another skater, Stephen Sparrow said: "There are people smoking out here and doing drugs. We need lights, and a first aider and a little shelter."

The skaters also said that

TARGETED: The skate park in Howe Road

vandals had lit fires in the skate park and set off fireworks.

Dillon said on Tuesday: "It was actually last night that there was a fire on a ramp."

"We think we should get a new skate park."

They estimated around 25 to 30 young people regularly skate at the park and are disrupted by these incidents.

Haverhill police have acknowledged that vandals starting fires and smashing bottles to discredit the skate park's users is a problem.

Sgt Matt Gilbert of Haverhill Police said: "With the schools breaking up, there has been vandalism and arson."

Earlier this year, a number of 15 and 16-year-old students at Castle Manor Academy began a campaign for a new indoor skate park.

COMMUNITY

Please improve our children's play area

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

PARENTS have started a campaign to improve a play area – which contains just four pieces of equipment.

Ben Brangwin, who lives in Haverhill's Forest Glade and Clare Reeve, of Cambridge Way, have launched an on-line petition about the Howe Road play area.

The petition has received 359 signatures since it was launched last Thursday.

It states: "The tractor park is very rundown and ageing. It is a play area that serves a large part of the community, however many people from the town are having to travel, if they can, to parks further afield with more play equipment."

"There is very little for children to play on at the park especially since the removal of some play equipment and there have been no replacements."

Campaigner Clare has two children who use the playground: Poppy, 7 and Arty, 18 months. She said: "We need to prepare to fight for it, to work for it, and kick up a fuss."

The playground currently has four pieces of equipment: a large tractor-shaped climbing frame, which recently had the toy steering wheel removed; two sets of swings, and one elephant-shaped springy chair.

Seven-year-old Poppy Reeve, who regularly uses the playground, said: "It's really nice but I don't like the elephant. I used to like the roundabout but now it's gone. I want the same roundabout and maybe in the middle there could be a slide."

'DISGRACE': The play area in Howe Road

A council spokesperson confirmed that a bicycle roundabout at the playground had been taken away from the play area some time ago, "as it was deemed beyond economic repair".

The parents also have concerns about the safety of the playground, as the metal equipment has sharp corners, and some of the ground is hard and not covered in safety surface.

As well as the petition, Clare and Ben, a father of two, have been in touch with mayor of Haverhill Betty McLatchy and local councillors, including town and borough councillor Barry Robbins.

Cllr Robbins is planning to bring up the issue with St Edmundsbury Borough Council. He said: "It's in a really bad state of repair. It's a disgrace really."

"It does need to be sorted out. Lots of people have been in touch saying when is something going to be done. I used to take my children and my grandchildren there."

A council spokesperson said: "There is a rolling renewal programme for the 90 play areas we look after in West Suffolk, which is informed by use and condition, and Howe Road is not scheduled for work in the next couple of years. However the new Meadowlands play area is within 400m of Howes Road, at Hales Barn Road."

St Edmundsbury also confirmed that the playground is inspected every week by a council officer and assessed once a year by an independent inspector. The inspector can recommend that the park either be closed or action taken to repair or remove a piece of equipment if required.

The campaigners are hoping to start a residents' association to campaign for the playground. If you would like to get involved, contact Clare at clare.reeve@outlook.com or Ben at brangwins@hotmail.co.uk.

COURT

Driver on drugs fined and banned

A MAN who was using a mobile phone while driving with cannabis in his blood has been banned from the roads.

Daniel Adshead, of Harewood Terrace, Haverhill, was stopped by police for driving with no seat belt and using his mobile phone on Coldhams Lane, Cambridge, on April 5.

But when police stopped him they noticed a smell of cannabis so they carried out a road side drugs test.

Once in custody, the 36-year-old was found to have 5.8 kg of cannabis per 1 litre of blood – more than twice the legal limit.

Adshead, who pleaded guilty on Tuesday at Cambridge Magistrates' Court, has no previous convictions of a similar nature.

The window fitter said he had smoked cannabis the night before and hadn't realised it would still be in his system at 10.30am – when he was stopped.

He added that losing his job was "on the cards" if banned from driving.

Adshead was given a 12 month ban and a £150 fine for the offence.

He was also ordered to pay £85 in court costs and a £25 victim surcharge.

'Iron mum' Jackie rises to a challenge

ACHIEVEMENT: Jackie with her triathlon medal. She raised money for Bliss, a charity which helped when their own daughter was born prematurely, below

WHILE other people might have spent last Sunday sleeping in or eating a roast, one 44-year-old mum, was completing a marathon, an 112 mile bike ride and an open water swim.

Jackie Dockerill, who lives in White Caville, Haverhill, was taking part in the Outlaw Triathlon in Nottingham, her first ever "iron man" challenge.

She has been running for over 20 years and has taken part in 22 marathons, but had never attempted the gruelling triathlon.

Jackie said: "It was very scary. I was very very nervous. But once I got started, it was just focusing and carrying on."

"The hardest element is obviously the run. By that stage you have already done the swim and the cycle ride."

"I have done half an Iron Man, but this is the first time I've done a full one. And doesn't help the nervousness, because you know you haven't achieved it before."

But she managed to complete it in 13 hours, 58 minutes and 4 seconds.

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

Jackie signed up for the event in September last year, and has been training ever since. The training usually involved long cycle rides, and then running afterwards, or long runs. At the most intense point, she was doing twenty hours of training a week.

Jackie, who also runs her own book-keeping business, used the triathlon to raise money for a charity that helps premature babies.

Her daughter Alice, now 9, was born prematurely and the charity, Bliss, provided an incubator for her.

Since then Jackie and her husband have tried to raise money for the charity, including running the London marathon for Bliss in 2007.

Alice, who has a younger brother Alexander, 8, is now perfectly healthy.

Jackie has raised £100 in sponsorship and would welcome more donations. To give, visit www.justgiving.com/jackie-dockerill1.

Barry's 100-mile cycle ride for hospice charity

A HAVERHILL man has taken on what he calls "the equivalent of the London Marathon to cyclists", to fundraise for a local charity.

Barry Pashler, who works for a chemical and food flavouring company in Haverhill, took on the Prudential Ride London challenge on Sunday.

This 100-mile cycle ride follows a route round London and Surrey and took place for the third time this year.

Barry was fundraising for St Nicholas Hospice Care, a Suffolk charity that runs Haverhill's Burton Centre in Camps Road, and provides support for people with life-limiting illnesses and conditions.

Barry said: "The hospice receives less than a quarter of its funding from the government and needs to raise an additional £11,000 per day, so it depends on outside fundraising and donations to operate fully."

"Having had family and friends spend time at the hospice, I am more than happy to give a little time and effort to keep the hospice going."

Barry is aiming to raise £100 in sponsorship for the hospice.

SHIVER ME TIMBERS: Mayor of Haverhill Betty McLatchy with some of the young pirates

Swashbuckling summer holidays

LANDLUBBERS young and old have been enjoying a pirate-themed holiday camp at St Mary's Church in Market Square.

The 37 youngsters who attended the camp took part in arts and crafts projects, which included turning two of the church pews into a pirate ship that they painted and sailed.

They also played "cannon ball bowling" and parachute games, and made up words to a pirate song.

At the end of the day, the children who attended "walked the plank" and described their day.

On the final day of the holiday Mayor of Haverhill Betty McLatchy visited the camp and brought pirate-themed goody bags for the children.

Organiser Andrew Payne said: "We all had a great time: children, leaders and helpers."

JUSTICE

Prison causes 'grave concern'

INSPECTORS are "gravely concerned that the situation could become critical" at a local prison.

The Independent Monitoring Board (IMB) has published a report on how HMP Highpoint, near Stradishall, performed during 2014.

The report acknowledges the hard work of prison staff, but highlights concerns including legal highs, poor staffing levels, and inadequate facilities.

The use of a legal high known as "spice" has skyrocketed in 2014. In 2013 72.2g of the substance were confiscated in the prison, while the following year this increased to 1.578kg, over 20 times as much.

The report calls for a reliable testing method for spice, as well as strong security measures.

Also highlighted in the report are the aging facilities. In one unit of the prison it was reported in October that night staff gave prisoners a broom to clear the blocked toilets with. The inspectors deemed this "unacceptable". But one of the biggest problems identified in the report are the staffing levels at the prison, which it states are at an "all-time low". The IMB reports that at the end of 2014 there were 54 vacancies at the prison.

HANNAH MIRSKY

The report states: "Vacancies, sickness or emergencies can mean that at times the Governor and his Senior Management Team face an unenviable challenge to ensure all essential daily tasks are covered and a safe and decent regime maintained."

The inspectors highlight that the staff work hard to cope with this, and highlights learning and skills as an area where they do a "very good job".

As part of the "overall judgement" section of the report, the IMB write: "...the Board remains gravely concerned that this situation could become critical. With more budget cuts, staff leaving and not being replaced, and sickness levels remaining high can only have an adverse effect on the running of a safe and decent establishment."

A Prison Service spokesperson said in response to the report: "We are pleased that this report has highlighted the commitment and dedication shown by the staff at HMP Highpoint."

"Our prisons have safe and decent staffing levels, and we responded to recent pressures by recruiting over 1,700 additional prison officers."

"We are determined to build on the hard work taking place at this prison, further building a regime which provides the right incentives for prisoners to engage in education and work."

From start to finish a job well done

Our wood burner was installed yesterday by Terry and Carole and we would like to say how pleased we were with their work. They were extremely courteous, pleasant and efficient and took the time to explain everything very well.

Just to say how pleased I am with the gas fire that I had fitted yesterday and particularly how hard Dave and George worked for the whole time they were here, doing a great job. Please pass on my thanks and mustn't forget Cam for his part - thanks guys.

You can have your leaves back

WE already pay our council tax for the brown bins, black bins, blue bina... what colour next? Why has this become an issue? I am a pensioner so money is very tight as it is for most of us and I am sure people don't want to pay twice? I have a postage stamp for a garden so have very little waste that goes into the brown bin except after the winter when I have two full bins of leaves that I clear off my front lawn that come off the huge trees that the council own! If the leaves from their trees can be dumped on my property, only seems fair to dump it on their lawns for recycling.

We love living in this town

HOW I agree with the writer of the letter headed "Leave our lovely town alone". The snobs in the villages should keep their nasty remarks to themselves. They clearly have not experienced the friendliness of Haverhill. We moved here nearly 20 years ago, having lived in many places in England and three years in Australia. Not for one minute have we regretted the move.

Right from the first day we strolled up the High Street (bustling every day then, as it is now), we were welcomed and chatted to by complete strangers, anxious to answer our queries and include us into their company. It hasn't changed to this day – except now we are greeted by people who know our name. When asked by friends how we had found the move to Haverhill, we replied: "Haverhill is a small, unpretentious market town, going about its business, and we love it." In many ways we were reminded of the small towns in France where we have holidayed for 40 years – full of interest, small shops, always busy, you can hear the bustle. It suits us down to the ground.

As for the people who run the town and keep the place buzzing – hats off to Nick Keeble and the town hall staff; to the Mayor and council staff; to the editor of this newspaper who also loves the town; to all the shopkeepers, the doctors and nurses and health staff, the milkmen, the postmen and many others – all of whom are pleasant, civil and helpful. Shame on the cheap jokes (to gain a cheap laugh) from the villages. We can do without them.

We know we're well off in Haverhill with things that money can't buy. Name and address withheld

HAVERHILL

Haverhill Owls WI continues to enjoy their summer programme. July's meeting was a demonstration of seasonal flower arranging by the ever popular and very humorous local florist Jane Coe who produced four arrangements using sunflowers, roses and gladioli. Four lucky members took home 4 beautiful raffle prizes! Also this month we will be attending a garden party at Suffolk West HQ in Fornham-St-Genevieve celebrating their 95th anniversary, only 5 years younger than the National WI. As this is the special centenary year for the WI why not make it the year you join in the fun? Our next meeting will be on 11th August at 7.30pm at the Burton Centre, Haverhill and our next outing will be to Helmingham Hall and gardens on August 19th. Several of our members ran a cake stall at the very successful Haverhill Summer Bash.

Review of Robin Hood, the Musical

Although the weather was changeable, there was still a good turnout for the annual performance by the Cambridge Touring Theatre Company in the East Town Park on Saturday 25th July and in my opinion their adaptation of Robin Hood, The Musical was the best performance I've seen in the 5 years I have been attending.

The star of the show by far was the hilarious Sheriff of Nottingham who put everything into the part. The funniest part being when he came on stage like a rapper to the pre-prepped cheering audience. There were the usual shenanigans of actors stealing the audience's picnic food and plenty of participation to keep the audience engaged. Another great show and I'm looking forward to next year already.

Wanted: Make-up models for promising young artist

KATIE Donno was just 14 when she was hit by a chronic pain condition that stopped her walking.

Unable to move around without help, she started watching YouTube makeup tutorials and teaching herself the skills. Now she's beginning a makeup course at college – and she wants to try out her skills on local people.

Katie, now 16, said: "I had nothing to do, I was just sitting there in the dining room, so I started watching makeup videos. I couldn't use my legs, so I used my hands."

She went on: "It was hard, because I was working in a local pub as a waitress and I really loved my job. It was fun to be able to have my money. Then to be in this state where I couldn't walk and I had to have one to one help with everything..."

Katie, who lives in Wrating Road, carried on with school and has just finished her GCSEs at Linton Village College. In September she will start a makeup course at Cambridge Regional College.

Katie hopes to become a professional makeup artist, working in film, theatre, or the fashion industry. She has already helped out with amateur theatre productions and has started a makeup tutorial Youtube channel.

She said: "It's good because it's quite a versatile job, and I know that I can do it whether I'm in the wheelchair or not.

"My family know that I will be able to work."

Her condition is called Complex Regional Pain Syndrome (CRPS), and little is known about how and why it happens. People who have it suffer severe pain, often in one part of their body. In Katie's case, it meant her legs stiffened up in a bent position.

She is managing the condition, and can now walk three to four steps unaided. She usually uses a crutch while at home and a wheelchair while out and about.

She said: "The makeup is something I can without any help."

Katie is now looking for local people who'd like their makeup done, so she can practise her skills. She has already advertised her free makeovers on social media.

She said: "It's great for people who otherwise wouldn't be able to afford getting their makeup done. I had one lady contact me saying 'I have never been able to do eyeshadow, can you teach me?'"

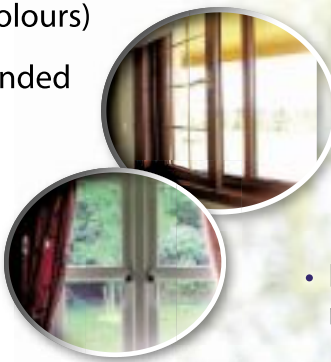

She's inviting anyone, young or old, male or female, to get in touch. Email: katedonno@me.com.

BOWERS Janice Amanda

In memory of my loving wife
Janice Amanda Bowers
12.2.1944 - 5.8.2014

I do not need a special day
To bring you to mind
The days I do not think of you
Are very hard to find,

Each day when I awake

I know that you are gone

And no one knows the heartache

As I try to carry on.

My heart still aches with sadness

And secret tears still flow

What it meant to lose you

No one will ever know.

Our thoughts are always with you

Your place no one can fill

In life we loved you dearly

In death we love you still.

Your husband Peter and Boyd, Kevin,

Michelle and families,

Vaughan, Carol, Dale, Sue and Mizon family.

COMMUNITY

Celebrating 10 years at Reach!

THE staff of a community organisation are having a fundraising drive to celebrate its 10th anniversary.

REACH Community Projects was set up 10 years ago as a debt counselling organisation.

Now it has many branches, including a food bank and a furniture bank.

As the organisation receives no government funding, they are using their 10th anniversary to complete challenges and raise funds.

Operations manager Ann Merrigan said: "We just thought: 'come on guys, it's been 10 years, we've got a lot to celebrate here.'"

She took part in a 25-mile cycle ride alongside

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

REACH's projects director Henry Wilson on July 25.

Ann said: "It's not something I have done for a long time, and it was quite a windy day, but we managed it."

Henry also completed the Great East Swim near Ipswich on June 20, and is planning to take on a half marathon on August 31.

Darryl Ashford-Smith, husband of REACH debt advice worker Lesley Ashford-Smith, is taking on a hike in the Swiss Alps for the organisation later this month.

The fundraisers are aiming to raise around £2,000 for REACH. Ann has already hit her £500 target, while Henry is aiming to raise £1,000 and Darryl a further £500.

Ann said: "The money will go towards making sure that Reach is still here in another 10 years."

The birthday festivities will conclude with an event at the Haverhill Arts Centre on September 16.

The event will be a chance for guests to learn more about REACH's work and hear from a speaker from the Cinnamon Network, which supports REACH.

ELECTRIFYING

Nearly 50 homes suffer power cut

NEARLY 50 Haverhill homes had power cuts on Monday night – some for more than 13 hours.

The first 12 properties in the St Botolph's Way area lost power at 8.20pm, while 20 suffered outages at 11.55pm. A further 17 properties had their power isolated for safety reasons.

The electricity was not restored until 10am on Tuesday morning.

A spokeswoman for UK power networks said: "Following a fault on a piece of underground equipment UK Power Networks engineers have worked through the night trying to restore power to customers in the St Botolph's Way area of Haverhill."

"Around 12 customers would have seen an initial interruption to power at around 20.20 last night (Monday), but unfortunately electricity was lost to a further 20 customers at around 23.55pm and we isolated 17 customers for safety reasons."

One resident who suffered a power cut posted on Facebook on Tuesday morning: "By my reckoning, been off since 2am and still off now 8am. Won't be long before freezers have thawed out."

Solicitors sponsor town triathlon

A SOLICITORS has been named the new sponsor for a Haverhill triathlon.

Adams Harrison, based in the High Street, are the new sponsors for HaverTri. The triathlon will be held on Sunday, October 4, at Haverhill Leisure Centre.

Race organiser Jack Tappin

said: "It's great that there are businesses like Adams Harrison in Haverhill that are committed to realising athletics events in the town, and I look forward to working with them to deliver another excellent event for Haverhill."

This year will also see the launch of the HaverDua duathlon, which is set to take place on the same day as the HaverTri.

Both events will raise money for the Haverhill Scouts and Guides.

SPORT

£3k grant for football teams

A FOOTBALL club has received thousands of pounds in grant money to help develop its community sports provision.

Haverhill Rovers FC, based at the New Croft football ground in Chalkstone Way, have received a £3,000 "Grow the Game" grant from the Football Foundation.

The Rovers' football development officer, Peter Betts, said: "Haverhill Rovers are in desperate need of having senior football set up, following the demise of their reserve team."

"What's happened this year is they have formed two new adult teams: a new reserve team, and a community team, for 'football for all'. So there's one for people who just want to have fun, and one for people who want to push themselves."

"With that obviously comes expense. The grant is

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

really supporting the formation of those teams."

The teams have just been set up, and are going to start in the leagues next month. Previously, there was no stepping stone from the junior sides to the senior team.

The grant will also help the club to buy kit and other equipment. Some of the money provided will also be used to send coaches on training courses, including the FA level 1 and 2 coaching and FA youth award, as well as emergency aid and safeguarding children courses.

The "Grow the Game" scheme aims to increase participation in football nationwide by helping clubs cover the cost of setting up teams.

The scheme has £1.9m in funding from the FA and the Premier League, and last season helped to create 1,753 new teams.

This year the grants are particularly focused on the Under-15 age bracket and above, as participation tends to decline as young people leave school.

Two other West Suffolk teams, Brandon Town Youth FC and Mildenhall Town FC, also received grants.

MP for West Suffolk Matthew Hancock said about the grants: "It is right that these excellent local football clubs have been recognised for their contributions to community sport. I have no doubt that these grants will help them go from strength to strength and I wish all the teams the best of luck in the new season."

To find out more, call Haverhill Rovers FC on 01440 702137.

PLANNING

No demolition for village hall

HAVERHILL campaigners say "the mind boggles" at a decision to preserve a former village hall.

The campaigners are part of a movement to save the early 19th century Flint Cottage in Haverhill's Bumpstead Road. The cottage has come under threat since a planning application to demolish it and replace it with homes was submitted last month.

The people trying to save the cottage have expressed disbelief after an application to demolish a small timber former village hall in Stradishall was rejected.

The decision to preserve the building in The Street, Stradishall, was made by the chair and vice chair of the St Edmundsbury Borough Council Development Control committee.

The choice was referred to them after differences of opinion in the consultation on the application.

An architectural and historical appraisal stated that the hall has "a rather utilitarian character considered of little historical and architectural interest." Likewise, Stradishall Parish Council raised no objection to demolishing the building, which has not been in use since 2010.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

However, a conservation report states: "The building holds both architectural, historic and cultural value and such buildings are becoming increasingly rare with the threat of demolition and replacement." It adds that the building that would have been erected would compete with a nearby Grade II listed mansion.

Matt Cooper, a resident of Bumpstead Road who is campaigning to save Flint Cottage said: "Stradishall Village Hall is affectionately referred to as 'The Shed'. It has a corrugated sheet metal roof and is in a terrible state of disrepair. There were no public objections to the demolition (including Stradishall Parish Council) but the planning application was refused."

He went on: "The Shed vs Flint Cottage in the Heritage Asset stakes? The latter wins in my opinion and that of a great number of people, as evidenced by our Change.org petition which has now been signed by nearly 1,000 supporters, the majority of whom have close ties with the local area."

He said that one of his neighbours, Bill Taylor, who is involved in the campaign, had sent a letter to St Edmundsbury Borough Council regarding the decision.

The borough council's development control committee will make a decision on the Flint Cottage Application on September 3.

Cemetery preparations for VJ day

HAVERHILL cemetery is being spruced up to mark the 70th anniversary of the end of the Second World War.

Members of the town's Royal British Legion and Air Cadet force have been tidying the graveyard. They have also placed a wreath of poppies on the graves of each of the Second World War Casualties buried there.

VJ Day is celebrated on August 15, marking the end of the war in the Far East. A guided walk to remember the 12 Haverhill men who died in the Far East is being held on Sunday, August 16 at 3pm in the cemetery.

To book a free place on the walk, call 01440 714 140.

Celebrate at Days Inn Haverhill

TAKE a closer look: It's probably fair to say that the summer of 2015 has been a decidedly mixed bag so far! From blue skies and soaring temperatures to blustery, wet, grey days with a real chill factor; we seem to have had it all in July. The British weather remains characteristically unpredictable – unlike the service you will receive when booking your function at the Days Inn Haverhill.

Planning an event? Days Inn's award-winning team understand the vital ingredients required to make your event stress-free and a success. Whether you are looking to host a birthday party or a funeral tea, we help to create the appropriate atmosphere and environment to suit any occasion. "Just a note to say a huge thank-you for making the funeral tea run so smoothly. Everybody commented how nice the food was and we felt you all helped to make it as lovely an occasion as possible in the circumstances," says Sharon C.

Over the last nine years hundreds of celebrations have been hosted in the Days Inn function room including baby showers, christenings, First Holy Communion receptions, engagement parties, anniversary dinners, family reunions, Christmas parties, private dining, adult and children's birthday parties. The Falcon Suite is spacious, clean and modern and can easily be transformed into whatever theme you require.

Getting married? If you are looking for an affordable wedding venue you will be surprised at what is on offer at Days Inn. A civil licence means that they can host the whole wedding, from the ceremony to the wedding breakfast and even the evening reception, complete with wooden dancefloor and disco, for up to 100 guests. The licence also covers civil partnerships, the renewing of vows and naming ceremonies. Staying the night? Accommodation is no problem with 80 comfortable and clean rooms. Guests attending an event at the hotel will also be offered a discounted hotel room rate. With ample free parking and a well-stocked 24-hour bar, the Days Inn Haverhill is the perfect choice to host your special occasion. Visit daysinnhaverhill.co.uk/venue or call the team on (01440) 716950.

NEWS IN BRIEF

New apprenticeship for care sector launches

A NEW kind of apprenticeship for young people who want to work in the care sector is being launched in September.

It will combine four months working in a hospital - either West Suffolk or Ipswich - with four months working in community care and four months working for Leading Lives, which cares for people with disabilities. Visit findapprenticeship.service.gov.uk.

Have your say on council openness

RESIDENTS are being invited to have their say on how St Edmundsbury Borough Council could improve openness.

Feedback received will form part of a joint initiative with six other Suffolk councils called "Releasing Data for All." The councils want to hear what data the public would like to see released.

To have your say, call 01449 724901.

Trust's support staff 'talent for care' pledge

THE Norfolk and Suffolk NHS Foundation Trust has pledged to widen participation and improve its support staff's "talent for care".

Chief executive Michael Scott, and staffside representative, Carol Briggs, signed Health Education England's pledge, which is part of a national initiative, on 30 July.

CYCLING

TABOO: Where Aisha Shua comes from in Uganda women do not cycle

My first bike... at 33

A UGANDAN woman has defied cultural taboos and learned to ride a bike after living locally for more than 10 years.

Aisha Shua, 33, who lives in Horseheath, says it is almost unheard for a woman to cycle in her home country due to fears it will compromise their virginity.

Following a friend's encouragement, Aisha discovered the "liberating" joy of pedal power - but has still yet to tell her mum about her new mode of transport.

Aisha, a support worker, said: "In Uganda not many people cycle and women definitely do not."

"They are told they will lose their virginity and will be gossiped about."

"But even women who have had children like my mother do not do so either. They cannot ride motorbikes without a driver too and then must sit sideways."

After nearly 10 years of living in one of the UK's biggest cycling cities, Aisha finally picked up a bike after she began volunteering for a charity which helps people of all abilities learn to ride.

She explained: "My friend told me it's not good me helping people to ride a bike when I cannot do so myself, so he bought me my first bike.

ELEANOR DICKINSON

"But it turned out to be so convenient. One cannot be caught up in traffic - it's so liberating. I feel free while cycling."

Aisha now hopes a cycling revolution will one day make its way back to Uganda - but says it would take a brave woman to break the taboo.

She said: "We travel miles and to get to places, for example if you live in villages, schools and hospitals are really, really far."

"But there are few transport options available. Few people can afford a car. I lived in the city Kampala but even I walked four miles to school every morning and then back again. It would help us if we were allowed to use bikes because they are so convenient and do not need petrol."

She added: "I don't know if I would be brave enough to take my bike though. Maybe one day I will see if I can get away with it."

Funding for broadband

A £3.9million funding boost has been made available for a scheme to improve high speed broadband coverage across the county.

Suffolk County Council is working with BT to secure the funding as part of the Better Broadband for Suffolk initiative.

To make use of increasing high speed broadband provision, residents should contact their provider.

Chief executive of council talks at event

THE chief executive of Suffolk County Council, Deborah Cadman, will speak at the Days Inn Haverhill at 10am on August 20. To attend the free event, call Elaine Carr on 01440 710 158 by August 18.

Men's choir returns from European tour

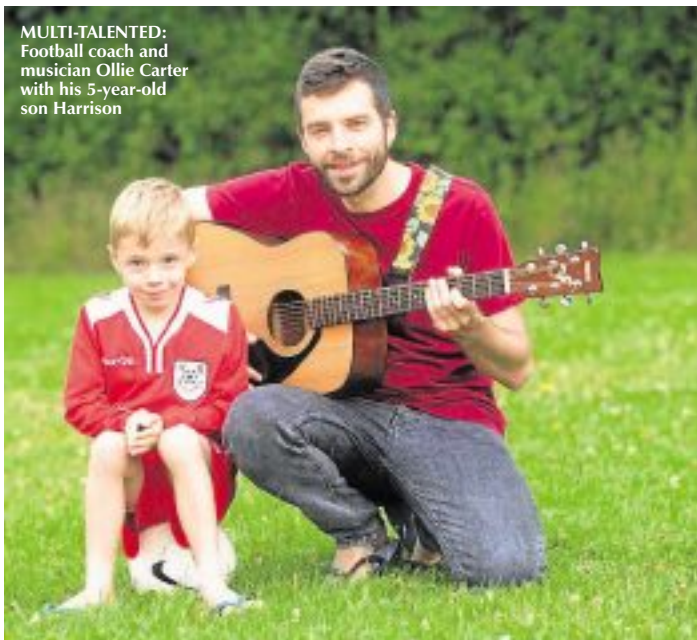

THE St Edmundsbury Male Voice Choir returned from a European tour on July 23.

They had visited locations in Belgium, France and Germany, including Haverhill's twin town, Ehringhausen. They visited a memorial to Suffolk First World War dead at Le Cateau, France, and sang Rupert Brooke's "The Soldier" there.

Eight gigs in just eight hours for football club

MULTI-TALENTED: Football coach and musician Ollie Carter with his 5-year-old son Harrison

A DAD is preparing to play eight gigs at different venues in eight hours – to raise money for his son's football team.

Ollie Carter, who lives in Burnt House Close, Haverhill, coaches the Haverhill Rovers FC Under 6s team, which his 5-year-old son Harrison plays for.

He is also a musician, having first picked up a guitar in his teens playing Britpop covers. His band ended up touring with some of the biggest bands of the 90s such as Supergrass and the Bluetones. He now plays acoustic covers of music from the Kinks to the Kings of Leon.

Ollie started coaching eight months ago, and just three weeks ago helped to set up the Under 6s team. Now he's combining his love of music and football to help fund the new team.

He said: "Things are very expensive for the boys. They need somewhere safe to play indoors in winter, and they need equipment. For a bag of balls to play with, you are talking over £70.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

"What we didn't want to do is keep leaning on the parents asking for money."

So he thought up the Gigathon to raise money for the team.

He enlisted help from his employers, Barclays, who will be matching pound-for-pound the first £1,000 that he raises.

Ollie said: "It looks like it's going to be very worthwhile, and could even bank roll our little outfit for a couple of years."

The gigathon will take place on August 22 from 2pm to 10pm at the following venues: the Eight Bells, Saffron Walden; the Cricketer's Arms, Rickling Green; the Cork House and the Dog and Duck in Stansted Mountfitchet; the Coach and Horses and Marne Inn in Thorley Park; and Flitch House and the Saracen's Head in Dunmow. All are welcome.

The legend returns

LEGENDARY crooner Tom Jones is back in Newmarket this Friday night.

The Voice judge will be performing his hits including It's Not Unusual, Sex Bomb and Delilah for the third year at The July Course following an afternoon of racing.

When his appearance was announced, the Welsh singer said: "I'm really looking forward to appearing at An Evening At The Races this summer.

"I always have a fantastic time performing to audiences at the racecourses so it's my pleasure to be asked to return for another year."

Tickets are still available for this Friday. They range from £28 for a family enclosure ticket, £38 for a grandstand and paddock ticket, and £43 for a premier enclosure ticket.

Amy Starkey, regional director east of Jockey Club Racecourses, said: "It's wonderful news that Sir Tom Jones, a Newmarket Nights regular with three appearances on The July Course since 2011, is returning to Newmarket Racecourses.

"He is the complete performer and, not surprisingly, they have all been sell-out evenings."

Call the ticketing line on 0844 579 3010 to grab your place in the crowd this Friday, or go to newmarket.thejockeyclub.co.uk to purchase online.

Party with Pongo and his puppet pals

● CBeebies' Justin Fletcher (Mr Tumble) and Nicole Davis are the voices of Pongo the Pig and Molly-Moo the Cow in PONGO'S PARTY on Tuesday August 11 at 2pm. The day has come that Pongo the Pig has been waiting for – his birthday! He's been dropping hints to his friends all year so is looking forward to a fantastic party ... but the trouble is, nobody seems to remember! Created and written by Martin Parsons (Playdays Live, Sooty's Magic Castle) and Kate Ashmead (Tweenies, Thomas & Friends Live) and directed by one of the top names in children's entertainment, Playschool presenter and BBC Tweenies creator, Iain Lauchlan, Pongo's Party is set on a vibrant, colourful and imaginative farmyard that's home to a whole host of loveable puppet characters. Come and help make Pongo's Party a day to remember, by joining in a show full of songs, games, fun and laughter and the biggest game of pass the parcel in town – who knows, you may even win! Suitable for ages 2-plus (please note that Justin and Nicole do not appear in person).

● Come along to this year's FLOWER FESTIVAL on Friday, August 14, from 1.30pm to 5pm and Saturday, August 15, 9.30am to 4pm. Be inspired by the wonderful flower arrangements

● There will be no events in the Main Hall until Monday August 11; it's time for our annual clean/maintenance week.

on show; oh to be talented!

● On the cinema front Reel Culture FORCE MAJEURE (15) is showing on Monday August 10 at 7.30pm. When Tomas abandons his family during an avalanche on their skiing holiday, the moment of betrayal has far-reaching consequences. Swedish with English subtitles. Ian McKellen stars in MR HOLMES (PG) on Tuesday August 11 at 7.30pm. It's 1947 and Sherlock is retired. His gradually ailing mind rallies to piece together a fiendish 30-year-old mystery. As usual McKellen, pictured above, gives an astonishing performance in this absorbing new take on an iconic character. If you can't make Tuesday, we have screenings on Tuesday, August 25, at 7.30pm and Tuesday, September 8, at 1.30pm.

● Events to look out for include The Three Little Pigs, fun theatre with balloons for ages 3-plus from Circo Ridicoloso, on Friday August 21 at 2pm, a live broadcast by the Royal Shakespeare Company of Othello on Wednesday, August 26, at 7pm starring Hugh Quarshie and Lucian Msamati, and the ever popular 'Froggie' Raymond Froggatt, one of Britain's most prolific singer-songwriters performing his unique mix of country music and rock and roll on Saturday September 5 at 7.30pm.

Towing tips for those on a caravan vacation

CONTROLLING two vehicles might sound daunting, but all it takes is a little extra preparation and precaution. With the summer holidays underway, The Caravan Club has put together a list of towing tips and advice for those who are planning a road trip this summer.

The Caravan Club recommends the following advice to ensure the perfect getaway:

Planning

- Before setting off make sure that the caravan is correctly hitched up to the towing vehicle, also check the lights, tyre pressure, caravan wheel fixing torques and breakaway cable

- Use extension mirrors when towing to ensure a good rear view. These are a legal requirement for most car-caravan combinations

- Remember not to panic if the caravan being towed begins to swing slightly, this can happen particularly in cross winds or if a large vehicle is alongside. Gently slow down without braking or trying to steer and the sway should disappear.

Weight considerations

- Check the weight of the vehicle being towed to ensure your car is capable of towing it. There's more advice on towing safely on The Caravan Club's 'experience freedom' website.

Braking distances & manoeuvring

- When controlling two vehicles, it is important to allow more time and space

- Brake earlier than normal and allow more time to accelerate. Also, due to the size of the combination, make sure corners are taken more widely.

Legal requirements

- It is a requirement for the towed vehicle to display a legal number plate which matches the car towing it
- Legal speed limits are often lower when towing, so it is important to check before setting off
- Do not carry passengers in the caravan when towing – it is illegal and dangerous.

The Caravan Club offers a number of towing courses across the UK. Remember to follow the advice and take extra care when towing. It is important to check the legal requirements of the destination country if towing abroad. Take a look at The Caravan Club's checklist of what to take when driving abroad at caravanclub.co.uk.

The Caravan Club offers its members more than 200 Club sites and 2,500 privately owned places to stay, and provides all members with expert advice, overseas travel services, financial services and exclusive member offers and discounts.

For further information and details on how to book a tent pitch online, go to caravanclub.co.uk/camping. Have fun!

VOLVO: Right fuel for your needs

Marshall Volvo will help you find the right fuel for your driving needs

VOLVO dealership Marshall Cambridge is helping local customers in Cambridge negotiate the car-buying process with advice on choosing the right fuel for their driving needs.

Even with diesel prices coming down at the pumps in recent months, the development of much more efficient petrol engines means that low-mileage motorists may in fact be better off choosing a petrol model.

Customers visiting Volvo dealership Marshall Cambridge, located at 699 Newmarket Road, will be able to take advantage of their expert knowledge.

For example, take Volvo's V40 T2 ES entry model, priced from £19,195. The petrol engine returns up to 51.4mpg on the combined fuel cycle – a figure more closely associated with diesel engine performance a few years ago.

Anthony Lord at Marshall Cambridge comments: "We welcome customers to simply come in and have a chat."

Lexus is 'best car to own'

THE Lexus IS MkIII has been voted as the Best Car To Own by the readers of Auto Express magazine.

The Driver Power survey had more than 61,000 responses from readers who were both praising and criticising their cars.

"Which is the best car to own?" That's the question readers were asked, with subsequent questions involving: "Has it been reliable during your time with it?" and "Have you endured constant problems?" "What about practicality?"

The top 10 2015 cars were deemed to be:

1. Lexus IS MkIII	93.96%
2. Skoda Yeti MkI	93.92%
3. Hyundai i10 MkII	93.59%
4. SEAT Leon MkIII	92.89%
5. Renault ZOE MkI	92.87%
6. Lexus NX MkI	92.58%
7. Jaguar XJ MkIV	92.46%
8. Nissan LEAF MkI	92.45%
9. MINI Hatch MkIII	92.27%
10. MG MG3 MkI	91.96%

ContamacTM

EMPOWERING YOUR VISION

Contamac Ltd is a world leading producer of highly specialised polymers used in the manufacture of both contact and intraocular lenses. Based at our new headquarters in Saffron Walden, south of Cambridge, we are looking to further expand our R&D team as a result of expanding product development. Positions are full time 09:00 to 17:00 Monday to Friday, 23 days holiday and a company pension scheme after 3-months continuous service.

Research and Development Laboratory Supervisor

Educated to degree level or with considerable experience, the ideal candidate will have proven experience leading activities in a laboratory environment. Key responsibilities will include supervision and training of junior staff, implementation and improvement of procedures, management of contract testing program for external clients, building technical files for existing products and liaising with suppliers and equipment providers.

A professional individual with strong written and verbal communication skills. Organisation and prioritising skills are essential, as is the ability to lead and oversee a team of people within a busy laboratory environment. Computer literate including MS office such as Word and Excel. A sound understanding of routine analytical techniques typically used for monomer and polymer characterisation would be desirable. Salary in the region of £25,000.

Project Leader

Educated to degree level (or higher degree) in chemistry with an emphasis on polymeric materials and a background in acrylic polymers/formulations or hydrogel materials. Experience in polymer processing, curing methodologies and characterisation techniques is required. Knowledge of Design of Experiment approaches, including the use of the typical software used in this area and a sound understanding of routine analytical techniques typically used for monomer characterisation - familiarity with Agilent GC-MS and GC-FID systems (using Chemstation and Mass Hunter software operating systems) being of particular interest. Experience of directing technicians and following general laboratory procedures will also be favoured.

Plan and execute formulation and characterisation activities for new product developments according to the company's strategic plan, within agreed timeframes. Report experimental findings and provide status updates in written and oral presentations. A highly motivated creative thinker, able to solve problems and deliver results within tight deadlines. Salary in the region of £35,000.

Thirty minutes from Cambridge in rural Suffolk

Year 6 Teacher
Office Manager

For September 2015 or as soon as possible thereafter

Salary is dependent on experience

Contract type: Full Time

Contract term: Permanent

This is an exciting opportunity to join our school and play a key role in its future. We are looking for an experienced teacher for Year 6 and a well-organised Office Manager to manage the office and be line manager for two additional members of the office staff. You should have high expectations and want to be part of a supportive team working together to ensure the best start in life for our children.

Cherry Trees Preparatory and Montessori School is a co-educational day school with some 150 children enjoying a beautiful location in rural Suffolk. The school is beginning its first phase of exciting expansion plans, moving into Key Stage 3 in September and introducing boarding, so this is an opportunity to join the school and be part of its new development.

For more details of both roles and how to apply please email headteacher@cherrytreesschool.org. Please visit our website www.cherrytreesschool.org for more details about the school.

All applicants should be aware that Cherry Trees School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check is required for all successful applicants.

Cherry Trees School is an independent school located in Risby, currently providing education for 150 students and is affiliated to a global group with other schools in New York, Seoul, Shanghai and Vancouver Island.
